PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The GIOS display at the Farm Fair was another success. I want to thank all our members who volunteered and helped during the 5 days. It was a very hot 5 days and I'm glad that we invested in a mister so that our plants would not be impacted by the heat. And a special thank you to Gwen Teregawa our Show Chair who moves us along the path to delivering a great show every time. And to Nancy Nakama our Display chair who is a master at setting a theme and building an orchid fantasy around it.

Included in this newsletter are beautiful pictures of some of the award winning orchids. I cannot thank Ryan Metzger enough for all of his hard work taking such wonderful pictures for the club.

I'd like to remind everyone that we will be holding officer elections at our October meeting. We will also be accepting volunteers for chair positions. In addition to the

DID YOU KNOW?

The Garden Island Orchid Society would like to welcome our newest members: Joan Aanavi, Christine Brown, Carmela DeMarco, Presca Domingo, Deb Fobes, Roxanne Fujieki, Margie Funk, Molly McKenzie, Glenn Santos, Michael Smith, Ryan Wallace, Peter & Theresa Wiederoder, and Suzie Woolway. Also renewing is Deanne Gorospe.

The door prize and display orchid we received in the August meeting was Pot. (Miya's Radiance x Fred Stewart) 'Carmela'.

Ribbons, as well as cash awards, are given out for the orchids at our shows. We will gladly recycle the ribbons if you return them; saving money on purchasing additional ribbons.

August Meeting

Steve Uyehara shared some tips on displaying plants at the show at the August meeting.

Volunteer sign-ups for all volunteer chair positions for 2016-2017 were done.

Individuals were also able to sign up for officers.

ORCHIDS IN PARADISE SHOW

This year's Orchids in Paradise show at the county farm fair showcased an orchid garden surrounding the Menehune Fishpond. Nancy Nakama, Show Display Chair, designed a beautiful wishing pond. "At the Menehune wish pond, I wished for an orchid garden". The wish came TRUE! The volunteers for set-up quickly assembled the display with members orchids. Our newly purchased mister kept the orchids hydrated through the long days of the fair.

The judges, Scot Mitamuri and Tom Godbey, identified many award winning orchids. A detailed list of awards is available on the website. See Page 8 for a summary.

Allen Yamada kindly gave pottery pieces he has made to some awarded categories. He chose which categories would receive the gifts before the judging. Allen is pursuing his dream of displaying art with plants. Allen's trademark in his pieces is using black and white coloring, with a little other color now and then. Mahalo Allen for sharing your talent!

Best in Show (and Best Paphiopedilum) went to Orchid Alley for Paph Chiu Hua Dancer (below). Congratulations Neill and Fely!

Volunteers quickly set up the display. Here are a few pictures to remind us of all the hard work and the HEAT! Kimberlee thankfully sprayed us periodically to keep the temperature down. After set-up, we enjoy baby back ribs and had some time to socialize. Ryan spent several hours Friday getting photos of all the first place orchids you see in this newsletter. More photos on page 8
